Hon. James H. Mitchell's Death.

The following beautiful tribute to Hon. James H. Mitchell, who died at Bowling Green a few weeks ago, appeared in the Bowling Green Times. Deceased was a brother-in-law of Mr. R. H. Crow, of this county:

Can storied urn, or animated bust,
Back to its mansion call the fleeting breath?
Can Honor's voice provoke the silent dust.

Or Flattery soothe the dull, cold ear of death?

No! no! no!

So, no words of flattery nor honors which he bore with such modesty, can now appeal to the Hon. James Albert Mitchell, who sleeps his last sleep in Fairview cemetery. That he was a popular man all will agree. He was an able lawyer, progressive citizen, a tender-hearted, loyal friend, and above all, a gentleman and a Christian. The good Bishop Woodcock yesterday, in effect, told us a man's shoes may be filled when he is gone but questioned how he is to be replaced in the hearts of those who loved him? Some equally able and learned lawyer may succeed Mr. Mitchell in his official position but who will fill the void in the aching hearts of those sorrowing ones to whom he was so much?

The overworked, tired-out, zealous, affable lawyer who has taken on his immortality now knows there is:

"Rest, rest for the weary
Peace, peace to the soul."

Here and There.

Clarence Sturgeon shot and killed Ira Brewer, Wilford McMichael, and an unknown man in Louisville. The trouble came up over a woman.

Robert Tipton, a cousin of Judge James Hargis, shot and instantly killed Miles Patrick on White Bear Creek, as a result, it is alleged, of an old grudge.

Claud Murray, a prominent Todd county farmer, was shot and instantly killed by his brother-in-law, Lee Clifton, while riding in a buggy with his wife and children.

At the annual meeting of the Board of Curators of Kentucky University, held at Lexington Rev. John S. Sweeney, for 20 years chairman, resigned and was succeeded by Judge Matt Walton.

The Kentucky Court of Appeals, in reversing a case from the Franklin Circuit Court, held that a waterworks or lighting plant operated by a city cannot be made to pay State or county taxes.

Over 1,000,000 immigrants will have entered the United States through the port of New York during the year ending June 30, according to an estimate made by Immigration Commissioners Watchorn at Ellis Island.

The Kansas City delegation was conspicuous with R. W. Hoeker at its head. He originally came from Lincoln county, Kentucky, but has been away from Kentucky for 23 years. "But for loyalty to the State," he said, "they don't beat me much. I have been back 29 times, although I am now in the banking business and my work calls for much of my personal attention. I think the Home-Coming Week fine in conception and most extraordinary in execution.—Thursday's Courier Journal.

The judgment of the Lincoln Circuit Court was affirmed by the Court of Appeals in the case of H. C. Reid and others against the Commonwealth. Appellants are sureties for Ginn & Co., book publishers, and the judgment upheld is for $10,000 on a bond.

A Tribute To Howard D. Coleman.

Dead in the dawn of his noble young manhood,

Dead in his beauty, with life's harvest on,

Dead to the work which so oft he had dreamed of,

Dead with the daylight of boyhood scarce gone.

Dead with the hand hardly yet on the lever,

Dead to ambition of fortune or fame,

Dead to what promised a life of great purpose,

Dead to affection too sacred to name.

Dead to the hopes which upon him were centered,

Dead to the tears which above him are shed,

Dead unto all the endearments of home.

But list to the words that may lighten the shadows,

From the grave may dispel some of darkness and gloom.

Saved in the dawn of his noble young manhood

Saved from the care which cometh with strife.

Saved from the failure which has discouraged,

Saved from the byways and pitfalls of life.

Saved from all possible griefs of the future,

Saved from all possible temptations too.

Saved from the skeptic's dread power of alluring,

Saved ere the false could conquer the true.

Saved from the burdens which weary the shoulders,

Saved from the wrinkles that furrow the brow,

Saved into infinite powers of fulfillment,

Perfection complete—rest Howard—from now.

Dr. W. G. Gillette and Robert A. Grannis, both former vice presidents of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, have been indicted by the special grand jury which has been investigating insurance affairs in New York. Gillette is charged with forgery and perjury and Grannis with forgery and filing false statements.

The court of Appeals by unanimous action declared section 1303 of the Kentucky statutes, governing the Sunday closing of saloons in Louisville, to be constitutional and enforceable, but declined to require Judge McCann to redocket the dismissed cases, the court assuming that he will, with pleasure, enforce the law and discharge his duty.

The Court of Appeals, in an opinion by Judge O'Rear, whole court sitting, Judge Barker dissenting, affirmed the Madison Circuit Court in the case of Berea College vs. the Commonwealth. The court holds constitutional the act of 1904 known as the Day law, prohibiting the co-education of colored and white children, and reverses as to section 4, which provides that colored and white children shall not be taught within 25 miles of each other. The court holds this limitation an unreasonable exercise of police power to the State. The court says the new law does not violate the bill of rights or the 14th amendment of the Federal constitution. The case will go on appeal to the United States Supreme Court.

Curtis Jett, in jail at Cynthiana awaiting a new trial for the murder of James B. Marcum, made a confession that makes racy reading. In it Jett goes into details of the murder of Cockrell and Marcum and throws important light on the assassination of Dr. B. D. Cox. He implicates James Hargis and Ed Callahan as the chief conspirators in the Cockrell and Marcum murders, and tells of events before and after each shooting. He confesses he killed Marcum and says B. J. Evans' story of the assassination was true. He declares that he and John Smith and John Abner killed Cockrell. He implicates Hargis and Callahan strongly in the Cox murder and gives details relating thereto that have not heretofore been made public. Of Alex Hargis, Jett says, "He is an innocent man" and "he always tried to keep down trouble."

How to Break Up a Cold.

It may be a surprise to many to learn that a severe cold can be completely broken up in one or two days' time. The first symptoms of a cold are a dry, loud cough, a profuse watery discharge from the nose, and a thin, white coating on the tongue. When Chamberlain's cough remedy is taken every hour on the first appearance of these symptoms, it counteracts the effect of the cold and restores the system to a healthy condition within a day or two. "Liar!" yelled the parrot. "Thief!" "That bird must have been brought up by a thug," observed McFlub.

"Muckraker!"

"Ah, now I see. He formerly belonged to some United States Senator, and a prominent one, no doubt."

If you will make inquiry it will be a revelation to you how many succumb to kidney or bladder troubles in one form or another. If the patient is not beyond medical aid, Foley's Kidney Cure will cure. It never disappoints. G. L. Penny.

Tuesday, June 19, has been decided on as the date for the Home-coming celebration to be given to Garrard and Lancaster's returning former residents.

The State Encampment of the G. A. R. at Berea was a big thing. Thousands were present each day and the "boys that wore the blue" had a great time.

Louisville boys carried off all the honors at Centre College, Danville, winning two gold medals and a cup. Charles W. Milner won the gold medal offered for the first prize in the annual oratorical contest. Ernest O. Grant won the second prize, also a gold medal. Ernest O'Neal won a silver cup offered for the best tennis player.

Matt Lockhart, a prominent young Knox county farmer, dropped dead during church services on Smokey Creek. Lockhart had just made public expression of his faith and declared his belief that he would be saved, when he dropped dead. Heart trouble is given as the cause of death. Lockhart was in excellent health when he entered the building.

Upon the charge that he has sustained a $10,000 loss because of breach of contract, Karl F. Bierach brought suit last night against J. M. Thompson, of London. Mr. Thompson came to the city at a late hour last night to attend the Home-Coming celebration, and notice of the action was served upon him as he stepped off the train. Bierach says that he secured from J. J. Glenn the coal rights to 280 acres of land in Muhlenberg county, and that he transferred them to the defendant. In consideration for this transfer the plaintiff alleged that Thompson employed him for a period of five years to operate mines on the land at a salary of $100 a month. He was also to receive a commission on all coal gotten out by him over a certain amount. The plaintiff says that after working three months for the defendant the latter refused to pay him or carry out the terms of his agreement with him. He alleges that during the five years of his employment his salary and commission would have amounted to $10,000.—Louisville Times.

Unknown Friends.

There are many people who have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with splendid results, but who are unknown because they have hesitated about giving a testimonial of their experience for publication. These people, however, are none the less friends of the remedy. They have done much toward making it a household word by their personal recommendations to friends and neighbors. It is a good medicine to have in the home and is widely known for its cures of diarrhoea and all forms of bowel trouble. For sale by W. N. Craig, the popular druggist, Stanford.

"But look at de size o' de box, lady," replied the huckster. "You don't git enough o' dem to do you no harm."—Philadelphia Press.

In his confession, which filled a page of the Courier Journal, Curtis Jett makes some startling revelations, which, if true, show the fearful condition of affairs in Breathitt. According to Jett, not much more thought is given to the assassination of a man in Jackson than the killing of a hog. If the half of his confession is true, at least a dozen men should dangle at the end of hempen lines and Jett himself should be the first one to be shuffled off. Following is the wind-up of the rather dramatic epistle: "You know I have been a bad man, but the people ought not to be too hard in passing judgment on me for I was brought up under the direction of Jim Hargis and Ed Callahan, and they set me an example and are responsible for wrecking my life, making me a murderer and causing me to be in a felon's cell. But from this day on I am determined to lead a better life. I have turned over a new leaf and am going to ask forgiveness for my past life and be a good man."

The Democratic State Executive Committee met at the Old Inn in Louisville Tuesday and discussed the matter of determining the time and mode of nominating Democratic candidates for State offices, and also United States Senator, to be voted for by the General Assembly. It was decided to hold the primary on election day, November 6. There was only one vote in opposition, and 12 were cast in favor of the proposition. The sole dissenter was Norton Fitch, of this district. Mr. Fitch said he had no objection to a primary, but thought it should be held in the spring. A sub-committee was then appointed to arrange the details of the primary. This committee consists of Louis McQuown, chairman, Col. Mott Ayres, Finley Fogg, Arthur B. Rouse, G. W. Roark and Norton R. Fitch.

SPEAKING of Oklahoma, whose admission as a State is agreed upon by the conference committee, it is formed of the union of Oklahoma and Indian territory. It has 1,000,000 inhabitants, about the same number as Connecticut. The area will be almost exactly that of North Dakota, or more than that of all New England. Oklahoma is only 16 years old as a territory. Its development has been one of the marvels of a land of marvels. The Indian territory, organized more than 70 years ago, contains most of the more progressive, educated and prosperous Indians of the nation. The new State will be a splendid one, well fitted to put the 46th star on the flag.

ELECTRICITY is a most subtle as well as a most unreliable agency. The touch of a live wire accidentally means instant death, but when a man is to be put to death by it and everything is prepared to make the killing as instantaneous as possible, it seems to slip an eccentric, as the engineers say, and fails to do its work. Strapped in the chair, and with the current applied at the most vital points, it took three applications to kill Charles L. Tucker, the murderer of pretty Mabel Page, at Weston, Mass.

THE Indiana Democrats see the Republicans and go them one better on the pension question. The old soldier vote has to be reckoned with in the Hoosier State, it seems. In their resolutions the Indiana Democrats say: As a simple act of justice to the Union soldiers and sailors of the war of the rebellion, we demand the enactment of a service pension law, and that the widows' pensions be equalized so that no widow will receive less than $12 per month.

At the laying of the corner stone of the new capitol at Frankfort to-morrow, Gen. D. W. Lindsay will be master of ceremonies. A number of prominent men will take part in the ceremonies and the occasion promises to be a memorable one.

The First and Second District Committees decided to postpone action on fixing the date and manner of nominating candidates for the Railroad Commissioners until after the Democratic State primary election.

The formal announcement of Attorney General N. B. Hays, of Bell county, for the governorship, to be voted for in the Democratic primary election in November next, may be expected within the next day or two, says a Frankfort dispatch.

Gov. Beckham has appointed Hon. Lillard H. Carter, of Anderson, Special Judge of the Bell Circuit Court, to preside in the case of Hamilton's administrator against Colson and others. The case is to settle the affairs of the late David G. Colson.

The Court of Appeals reversed the judgment of the Whitley Circuit Court in cases of Browning against Lovett and Croley against Jones, the Whitley election cases. The court decides for Democratic and Independent contestants for County Judge and Sheriff.

The Delaware Legislature elected Col. Henry A. Dupont United States Senator for the constitutional term beginning March 3, 1905. His election was practically unanimous, as the Democratic members voted blanks and all the Republican members save one voted for Col. Dupont.

The House Committee on Agriculture has agreed upon a meat inspection amendment to the Agricultural Appropriation Bill. No. 75.—15,000 acres of cotton land in Mississippi. There is no section of country which offers so many opportunities for profitable investment as the Mississippi Delta which is now being described as "Prosperity Valley." The timber is becoming more valuable all the time for the reason that lumber people from the North (where the supply of timber is fast diminishing, are constantly increasing their purchases of timber lands in the South. When the timber is removed the land is unequipped for agricultural purposes. It will produce a bale of cotton to the acre or will grow any other kind of crop raised in the temperate zone. The soil needs no fertilizers and gives a yield which cannot be excelled; taxes are low, the title is perfect and the man who buys Delta farm and timber lands at present prices is making an investment that he will never regret. This land is divided into tracts ranging from 40 acres to the tract to 2,000 acres to the tract and prices from $2 per acre to $10 per acre, according to location, etc. We are authorized by the company who owns these lands to state that as other parties are considering the purchase of these lands that we offer these lands subject to prior sale, withdrawal from market or change in price without notice. However, when notified, they will hold any tract of market land long enough for the purchaser to make an investigation. THE open session and memorial services of the Odd Fellows at their hall Tuesday evening proved an enjoyable occasion. The lodge room was tastily decorated with flowers and evergreens, splendid music was furnished and Messrs. A. C. Sine and J. C. McClary made timely talks.

A CRAB ORCHARD friend of the young man sends the following and asks its publication: Bain Culton, the Daniel Boone, of Fall Lick Creek and Dicks river, has just returned from Lexington, where he has been in school since October. He graduated in the city school, receiving the highest honor in his class. He is now the protege of Gen. W. H. Gentry, who has secured him the scholarship, at the State College, on account of his promising qualifications shown in the city school. Gen. Gentry is very proud of his protege, and feels he will not only be an honor to Lincoln county but the State in the near future.

A VERY delightful occasion indeed was the entertainment given by Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Rice at their pretty country home Wednesday evening, in honor of Misses Pauline and Margaret Hocker. Some 30 couples were present and from 8:30 p. m. to nearly 1 a. m. happiness reigned supreme. In the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. Rice, the Misses Hocker and Miss Lucy Hocker, of Kansas City, while those who entertained were Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Shanks, Miss Dollie McRoberts and Mr. W. S. Embury and Mrs. J. S. Rice. The home was beautifully decorated, with yellow and white predominating. Ices and cake, from Caterer Benedict, of Louisville, were served and delightful frappe was enjoyed during the evening. The young people are under lasting obligations to Mr. and Mrs. Rice for an exceedingly enjoyable evening and they are loud in their praise of the splendid host and the charming hostess.

MOST of Wednesday and all of yesterday was taken up in securing a jury in the case of R. E. Lee Sims for killing John R. Farris, and the jury is not yet complete. After exhausting the regular panel, 50 men were summoned but these did not furnish enough acceptable jurors and yesterday 40 men were brought from Boyle. These were examined and still a jury was not made up. Twenty more were ordered from Boyle to report this morning and it is hoped and believed that out of that number the four or five jurors yet wanted can be secured. The defense in this case is represented by Judges J. W. Alcorn, M. C. Sautley and Hon. Robert Harding. Commonwealth Attorney Charles A. Hardin and County Attorney W. S. Burch are assisted in the prosecution by Messrs. Harvey Helm and J. S. Owsley, Jr.

THE Cincinnati Enquirer's announcement of Hayden Dunn's death in that city was erroneous, according to the coroner's statement. That paper stated that the young man had committed suicide, when the coroner was undecided as to that. Mr. Dunn, like a great many boys, got too much whisky occasionally and in order to straighten up he sometimes took small pellets of morphine and it is not improbable nor impossible that he accidentally took too much this time. The bottle spoken of by the Enquirer did not contain poison, but bromidia, which is frequently taken for nervousness. The paper was also in error about the letter Col. I. M. Dunn had written his son being in young Dunn's hand. On the contrary it was in his pocket and had been well preserved. It was an exceedingly kind letter, just such an one as might have been expected from an indulgent father to a rather wayward son. Of course it is not known that Mr. Dunn did not take his life intentionally, but from the indications and the coroner's statement to Mr. M. S. Baughman, of this place, and the father it seems to us that it was an accident. Any way, there was no reason for his taking his life and it is hard for us to think that he did. Mr. Dunn was engaged with W. B. Carpenter & Co., stationery men, and was well thought of by them. He went with them in October last and his salary had been raised three times in that brief period. He was in good repute with his employees, who did every thing possible for Mr. Dunn and Mr. Baughman while they were in the city.

Following The Flag.

When our soldiers went to Cuba and the Philippines, health was the most important consideration. Willis T. Morgan, retired Commissary Sergeant U. S. A., of Rural Route 1, Concord, N. H., says: "I was two years in Cuba and two years in the Philippines, and being subject to colds, I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which kept me in perfect health. And now, in New Hampshire, we find it the best medicine in the world for coughs, colds, bronchial troubles and all lung diseases. Guaranteed at Penny's Drug Store, Stanford, Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard. Price 5¢ and $1. Trial bottle free.

In the Federal Court at Kansas City a jury returned a verdict finding the Burlington railway guilty on four counts of granting rebates to the Armour, Swift, Cudahy and Nelson Morris packing companies on export shipments. The penalty involves a fine of from $1,000 to $2,000 on each count.

The Very Best Remedy for Bowel Trouble.

Mr. M. F. Borroughs, an old and well-known resident of Bluffton, Ind., says: "I regard Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as the very best remedy for bowel trouble. I make this statement after having used the remedy in my family for several years. I am never without it." This remedy is almost sure to be needed before the summer is over. Why not buy it now and be prepared for such an emergency? For sale by W. N. Craig, the popular druggist, Stanford.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Among the curiosities of church architecture is a church in Santa Rosa, Cal., with a seating capacity for 200, which is built entirely of timber sawed out of a single rosewood tree.

Daniel Thornberry's store at Brooklyn, Ind., was blown into kindling wood, because Thornberry had been supplying liquor to the citizens of the town, and especially to the boys.

E. W. ROSE MEDICINE CO., St. Louis, Mo.

Dear Sirs:—It is a source of pleasure for me to permit you to use my picture before and after cured by "ZEMO," and to tell what "ZEMO" did for me. I doctored this case of (Acne) pimples for six years and spent several hundred dollars with physicians and specialists. The more salves and creams I used, the worse my face became. Mr. Ira Blackman recommended "ZEMO." Eight bottles entirely cured me, and I honestly believe "ZEMO" is the best remedy in the world for any skin disease.

Yours very truly, Ewing Young
